Total Credits Taken		61-62

- 1) Students should select ANTH 112: Cultural Anthropology. ANTH 112 will satisfy the Global Studies requirement at CCP.
- 2) Students should select the first level of any language, with the exception of Swahili and American Sign Language. The College of Liberal Arts at Temple University requires all students to complete at least two levels of a foreign language. A 101 level foreign language course at CCP will partially fulfill this requirement.
- 3) Courses that satisfy CCP humanities and social science electives generally transfer to Temple. General electives, which at CCP are any college-level course, require definite confirmation. To see how courses might transfer, consult Temple's Transfer Equivalency Tool: <http://admissions.temple.edu/transfer-equivalency-tool>. Courses not included in the transfer tool may transfer.
- 4) Students should select one of the following: BIOL 106, BIOL 107, BIOL 109, BIOL 110, CHE 110, PHY 111, PHY 112
- 5) Students should select the second level of any language, with the exception of Swahili and American Sign Language. The College of Liberal Arts at Temple University requires that all students complete at least two levels of a foreign language. A 102 level foreign language course at CCP will satisfy this requirement.
- 6) If eligible, students should select the third level of a foreign language course. Students who successfully complete the 201 level of a foreign language course will have also satisfied the CLA Foreign Language/Global Studies requirement for Bachelor of Arts students at Temple University.

If the suggested classes are successfully completed and an Associate of Arts in Psychology at Community College of Philadelphia, the remaining four semesters for the Bachelor of Arts in Psychology are as follows:

Total Credits for the B.A. Psychology (min 123) Note 3		123

Notes:

- Students should select a course that satisfies the CLA Foreign Language/Global Studies requirement. Students who completed two levels of a foreign language at their community college should select one of the following: complete a third semester of foreign language; take one Global Studies course; Study Abroad at an approved program; or take a General Education Global/World Society course. If you have completed a course with a C or higher to the 201 level, you have fulfilled this requirement and have a free elective or room for an additional major course.
- To earn a CLA baccalaureate degree, a student must complete a minimum of 123 credits, including: 90 credits in CLA/CST courses, 45 credits of which must be at the upper level (numbered 2000-4999). Of that, 6 credits must be outside the student's major division (e.g. Social Sciences or Humanities)
- Notes: The BA in Psychology at Temple consists of 44 credits, including 40 credits in Psychology plus 4 credits in a designated science area. Per the CLA Residency Requirement, students must complete at least half of major credits at Temple.
